IT IS THE ORDER OF THIS COURT THAT:

No-one, not even the Government, shall deprive the people of the common, natural, & unalienable right to Travel, to operate an automobile, stagecoach, or other personal transportation for non-commercial business, for pleasure, instruction, or health upon any public highways, or roads, or to transport goods, belongings, or other items. No Permit, License, or Registration, nor anything else shall be required to exercise this common right, so long as it's done peacefully without injuring another living human being or their property. Traveling while operating transportation can not be converted into a crime, infraction, citation, penalty, or other violation.

JUDGE Jeremiah C. Lynch
